

EarthSick

Floating clouds of waste and slag darkening the sky strong feeling of repulsion rise of asthmatic state breathing compromised nightmares

foreshadow of collapse

incubated sons of a glorious past fed on my warm care
foul generation

Why are you born evil?
Don't you perceive me as MOTHER?

Into an ulcerated stomach
I bring the stigmata of civilization
All the scars of a failed surgery eruption of the scum to clear the disgrace human presence will leave no trace

EarthSick, EarthSick,
it makes me die, grown inside EarthSick, EarthSick,
nauseated

roaring thunder, screaming souls deafening breakdown strong feeling of decline losing all stability earshot compromised

foreshadow of collapse

fed on my warm care

Why are you born evil?
Don't you perceive me as MOTHER?

EarthSick, EarthSick,
it makes me die, grown inside
EarthSick, EarthSick,
nauseated

a low frequency accross this land everything reduced to a heap of dead sand a wasteland of dead sand

Plague and Pray

lost in a coiled labyrinth, a flash of thoughts makes the last log out of your individual existence

I am your God, the administrator the only salvation hope into the system

let the new plague pervade the new era the supreme directory

files into this machine slaves with a name, enter the reign install the plague and pray for the cure shine holy grace, fade planet brain feed the lie, plague and pray slaves burn and save, plague and pray slaves trust the lie, plague and pray slaves

... in a coiled labyrinth, binary souls with no more proof of their own individual existence

this is the final mankind logout under the light of this machine arise a new race the plague and pray slaves

Decanted Embryos

like drops within the river
decanted embryos

There was a thing called breeding before sterility there was a thing called infection before preservation

I walked along the rows of bottled babies thirsty beings for phosphate and blood surrogate I could hear them whispering sleep-teaching repetitions desired predestination

it's christianity without tears everyone belongs to everyone else no more anguish, no more consciousness

decanted embryos

There was a thing called emotion before stability there was a thing called romance before conditioning

I saw a red darkness gleaming with stars hungry eyes for vitreous fluid surrogate I could feel them dreaming

disabled identities a shared gears machine with no social disease christianity without tears

Dominant GenEthics

fragments, rejected seeds, insane mitosis the origin of cancer flowing through my veins the new era of death (has begun) corrupted embryos reproduce in my lungs, it's my mutating body

Frozen germs of life stuck into glass shrines like precious relics of a lost archaic domination

stem cells, growing leaves, satan damnation or hope?

dominant genethics will keep the dead alive dominant genethics, a new mankind dominant genethics, the living will not survive

You can choose for the unborn, but not for the dying torment, ailment and pain will last

sick cells consume the bodies mankind begs for mercy dominant genethics, in the name of God dominant genethics, the perfect stock dominant genethics, here comes Satan's dog to lead us to the final state of evolution

Heretic Infected Voracious

Fluid as blood, uncoiled like a stream of venomous thoughts silent and vicious the species seeps within impure, horrific

evil, sick-sick-sick septic the viscera degenerate eternally twisted hordes flowing through the flesh spilled into the red flux of the veins crushing all defense affliction, contagion, disease deviant, human beliefs

we are the cancer, we are the race
heretic, infected, voracious
we are superior, we are the Faith

firm and relentless civilization falls

the planet degenerates eternally chemicals spread into the ground spilled into the pure flux of the streams released in the air oblivion, contagion, decay deviant, human beliefs

we are superior, we are the Faith
heretic, infected, voracious slithering to extinction slightly to perdition

World Damnatomy

ordes of germs take control of the new-born flesh seeds of a new generation of antigens generate / dominate: mankind stain the superior race the real malaise of the sick planet Death rationality fails, insanity prevails now sickness procreates

evil human cells
overwhelm the sane

No more cure, all systems go

World damnatomy grows
world damnatomy crawls planet Earth infection spreads new breed cancer released bacteria conquering the body, consuming their habitat procession to mortality, the progress of a roffing society

new breed cancer attack terminal decline can you feel the damnation move under your skin?

mankind slain sickness overwhelm the sane the sane, insane

SOUL-BORNE MALADIES

No, I'm not dead, I can not watch myself Lying on the couch, eyes shut go, speak to me, clear away your thoughts kill your judge, slyness we could not realize the deviation Passion overwhelmed by technopathology Nothing healed the crack inside

Individual choice and free will Deconstructed the cosmic mind
And let the cancer take the body soon

Revelation, excess of evil

Creeping on the underside
New soul-borne maladies
Chronic discontent affection

Causing blind rage, wish to dominate Self-deception, a universe at our disposal

Knowledge and learning
Not privilege and spurning

Yes, we are dead, I can watch myself Lying in the mud, and everyone else desolation

there will never be a new sane mind nor any other body to consume hardness of the soul nothing could heal scurvy and swelling

Individual choice and free will
And let the cancer take the body soon

the sickness of mankind a crack within the mind outbreak of despair the soul-borne maladies

The Serpent Verse

My exhausted soul
So much shed blood Paved with red our path and black our heart

As tears fell from God's eye Staring at mankind's tragedy

My forsaken soul
You witnessed to having passed On the soil under death's domain

Here I sleep
As Wadjet guards my truth
The Pharaoh claiming to creation is left to starve into a tomb, my eternal darkened room the serpent sleeps

in sin, it sinks
in whispers and sermons it coils within to anguish and seeps outside through a papyrus

Here I live
Waiting to arise in flames, the new dawn will come

Endless moon cycles for ages my Goddess watched in vain The mongoose came to kill

Worms consuming at last a mummified mankind
The final age of the fall to sickness has begun

Breeding into dust
To consume memories of a life that ends

the serpent verse remains Carved on the ancient stone
