...And God saw the light, that it was good...

...once upon a time there was darkness a non-dimensional world, no light, nor concreteness the boundless, everlasting domain of nothingness...

THE HATCH OPENS

Into the void
A Species of ghost Shapeless and black moves

no breath, emptiness trickling through nowhere

Deep, endless night
No life, no death

Light, evil rays, upon reality
a blaze of psychotic agony (pre – chorus)

The Hatch Opens now
The Hatch Opens wide darkness fades away

(solo: Raff)

A blinded realm Coils down inside the centre of warm rays

no more, endlessness crawling through nowhere

Soil creation
Substance has formed Chaos infection
Planets shooting everywhere

Hell leads the night from life to death

Light, evil rays, upon reality
a blaze of psychofic agony (pre – chorus)

The Hatch Opens now
The Hatch Opens wide
Paradise is lost

Lightfall – burning red
The dawn of forms and the living colours

Deathfall – blowing red Nightcreatures die out

Downfall – flowing red
The chasm fades

Wind blows
Increasing the fury of the conflagration
A maelstrom of flaming waves Consuming the abyss of eternity (2x)
The hatch opens now

...then there was light and all the creatures were wiped out by fire however, some immeterial DNA shaped a new living form...

VÖID MADE FLESH

Breathe, darkness goes by the wind like an old curtain blown away

All the ghosts of the night have been burnt All but one, unborn into a shell
Out of hell, in the shade of the womb
He will survive and take a new shape Bones first take their form A new frame is born

Infused is the soul of my breed in red blood
Engraved is the I of the void made flesh
Void-made flesh...

Harmonic, decaying, growing, demonic Contaminated heretic
The age of perpetual creation

Cruel deception

Flying shadows in the night your dark world has dissolved like hoarfrost in the sun A lost creature lives in a new shape wet flesh generates
The new body's born

Infused is the soul of my breed in red blood
Void-made flesh...

(solo: Raff)

Wings, wings to fly, veins to bleed, flesh to rot Eyes, eyes to see, skull to crush, birth to die
A beating heart, a heap of dry bones

... the first awareness of the being was the body and its decay due to time a plague at work sentencing all elements, he himself, to a slow death...

ALL VANISHING RUINS

shocked, shuddered shining brains, open grave, my brand new world destroying brightness
I can feel them leave myself

Drops of life grains of sand one by one fall

cells slowly rot to die sickness sweeping through a process of final demise cruel majesty of time everything passes, everything palls

slow and relentless, a futile passing away

as shining colours find their way to meaningless shades of grey my concreteness slides to frailty and fade

I am condemned
We are all vanishing ruins

(solo: Raff)

Like breeding seeds, infected cells Flourish and wait for their black reaper

I slide down on the glass of desolation

Flesh slowly rot to dust Bones are subjected to rust
A process of demise blains break out on my wasted skin symptoms of ordained, relentless agony sorcery of time light is despair anguish and pain everything dies

to meaningless shades of grey
my concreteness slides to frailty and fade
I am condemned
We are all vanishing ruins

... the ultimate hope was to descend the dragon's cave where all that's invisible is clear and every answer still lies in darkness...

THE DESCENT

Don't you know the roffing scars
are the mouths of the dead
Time stitched with care to drown the souls?

look at the stars in their eyes watch the scars unseam and crusts melt down If time reflects into a mirror, who's going to get old?
Wounds will bleed guts of time backwards!

Ancient faces staring at me From blackened pictures stuck on a throbbing wall while I sink back to the timeless black a space ship is drowning into the rambling flesh into the rambling bleeding flesh a black soul is condemned to creep down down to the stomach to reject... to clear the anguish

at the center of the coil

I descend the dragon's cave
I am the angel Of the end

Don't you know the rotting scars
are the mouths of the dead
Time shut forever
Time shut forever?

(solo: Raff)

Ancient faces stuck on a deceiving wall Watch me sink back into the timeless black

Where I find my body Watch it bleed watch it bleed and shine A black soul is condemned to crush down thy holy Kingdom I erase to sweeten the pain
at the center of the coil

I descend the dragon's cave
I am the angel Of the end
I never asked for this

... all started on a far planet called earth where a wretched species believes light is good and darkness evil...
Go backwards when they were born and kill'em all!

THE SLUM OF THE WRETCHED CREATURES

stone a small stone in the past forgotten weird dust to the evil light breed provided their needs slow ancient living masses of involuted shapes dominates this planet with no mercy, cruelty and pain so huge and wicked they eat their companion's flesh horrible creatures bringers of raw devastation

I must exterminate - Evolution
I will extinguish all - Wicked motion I cannot save this world

And let mine burn through millions ages
With my breeding darkness self

Cold winds, shadows black
Embrace them all
This is the slum
of the wretched creatures

Slum
upcoming downfall soon they will crawl this evil light breed will starve and freeze fiends they will suffocate - Involution they must dehydrate - inverse motion they cannot save their lives

And let mine burn through millions ages
With my breeding darkness self

Cold winds, shadows black
Embrace them all
This is the slum

cold winds, black dust, suffocation

(solo: Raff)

descend and possess, clear the slum of the wretched creatures exterminating, extinguishing, suffocating, dehydrating, annihilating

... that's how planet earth was cleansed and everything seemingly restored, yet, where darkness regained was expected some glares of light still sparkled...

THE SHINING HADES

lampstands beside the gate open wide unto a deep rough furnace glowing with fury flames, flames, incense and embers tongues of fire ascending red clouds protecting a hideous creature coiled, shaped like worm viper's voracious forked jaws spitting horror and rage

mother of all dead!
If I close my eyes
I can feel Death rising inside
Thy kingdom come, the shining Hades!

(solo: Raff)

Locusts from the smoke arise
To bring torment and pain

Venom drops from their tails stings pierce and burn my plagued flesh Blood, flowing down the viper's voracious forked jaws

mother of all dead!
If I close my eyes
I can feel Death rising inside
Thy kingdom come, the shining Hades!

...back to the reign of emptiness...

Abyss full of hateful flames

Calls you the hideous beast dominates Abyss full of hateful flames
Loves you the hideous beast arises to Shining Hades

The shining Hades (x4)

... Love for nature is what distinguishes the animals from us ...
Can show me progress and hell but you cannot make me a perpetrator of destruction...

I rebel and in sweet darkness
I take wing to the land where nature is endless ...

GRAVEYARD OF ANGELS

Come to me now there's no way out abandon all hopes

I can hear a voice calling from the web of sanity

Depart you devil...
- I – Heed my prayer...
- Shall – Save your soul...
- NOT – For thy goodness...

I swallow pills of darkness
to join eternal dumbness
I drink the wine of relief
I renounce all beliefs

slit, swallowed, I follow the passage to GOA

(solo: Raff – Simone – Raff – Simone – Raff) holy stillness, rows of sinners open fields of flowers to console and mourn waving dancers, blessed be thy darkness here your colours will never fade away

Depart you devil...
- I – Heed my prayer...
- Shall – Save your soul...
- NOT – For thy goodness...

to join eternal dumbness
I drink the wine of relief
I renounce all beliefs

slit, swallowed, I follow the passage to GOA

Cleanse your heart...
Submit your soul...
Let light win...

- I – Depart you devil...
- Shall – Heed my prayer...
- hold – Save your soul... my beauty in darkness...

... the creature went too far off in the past and happened to extinguish the light of a species called dinosaur thus opening mankind dominion...

...And God saw the light, that it was good...
